

Advanced Clinical Applications: Integrated: Module V

March 2nd - March 3rd, 2019
Saturday (9am-6pm) & Sunday (9am-5pm)
Sittensen Heimathaus, Northern Germany

- Where chiropractic and neurology meet: the neurological examination in dogs and horses
Dr. Doris Börner, Germany
- Modern Chiropractic Theory and its relevance to Your Practice
Olivia Jones, D.C., England, D.C., England
- Trauma and pain: two sides of one medal
Dr. Doris Börner, Germany
- The neurological face of fascia and movement
Dr. Doris Börner, Germany
- Vertebral Malformations Coming into Fashion: Chiropractic Care of French Bulldogs
Dr. Sybil Moffatt, DVM, IAVC, Germany
- Protecting Your Body for Career Longevity: Common Problems and Mistakes in Hand and Body Positioning.
Dr. Donald Moffatt, DVM, IAVC, Germany.
- The Mystery of Shivering Revealed
Kirstin Becker-Kauzlarich, DVM, Germany

As well as:

- Clinical case presentations
- Practical laboratory sessions:
- Technique tips and sharing
- Group clinical case management large and small animal... and more!

If you have topic suggestions, presentations, or expertise you would like to share during an Advanced Module, please let us know!

Advanced certification consists of attending 6 modules, a clinically relevant presentation, as well as submission of a research paper.